certified to State Auditor Richards the total assessed and equalized valuation of taxable property in each respective county, together with the net amount county, together with the net amount of state and state school taxes charged for collection for the year 1898. From the compliation of figures it appears that the total of laxing values is $100,-241,231, as against $101,435,714 for the year 1897. In 1896 the valuations aggregated $107,508,676. The state general fund tax, at the rate of 4½ mills on the dollar, and the state school levy at $2 mills, will yield for this year $761, 1253,31, while for the year 1897 the revenue amounted to $760,346,48.

The counties that show a loss in valuations and collectable taxes, as compared with last year, are: Grand, Juab, Millard, Morgan, Piute, Salt Lake, Summit, Washington and Weber, Increases are reported from Beaver, Box Elder, Cache, Carbon, Davis, Emery, Garfield, Iron, Kane, Rich, San, Juan, Sanpete, Sevier, Tooele, Ulntah, Utah, Wasatch and Wayne counties.

The shrinkare in valuations in Salt Lake county alone amounted to more than the het loss in the aggregate of all of Utah's counties. of state and state school taxes charged

DEPOSIT BOXES ROBBED.

Kansas Governor and Others Lose Their Cash.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 5.—The discovery has been made that the private deposit boxes of the state treasury have been looted within the last week. The discovery was first made by Governor Leedy on Wednesday evening. The governor went to his box to get some money before he weant home for Thanksgiving, but found his box empty. He had $55 in it.

This morning Miss. J. M. Herrington, which wo of the state house guide, who died last evening, went to the treasury and caked to get money from her husband's box. The box was found to be empty. Mr. Herrington told Assistant Treasurer Williams that he had $500 in the box. W. H. Barbee, Mr. Herrington's step-son, lost 138 from his box.

An investigation showed that the locks on as many as six or eight boxes are alike and one key will unlock several of them.

Board of Education.

At a meeting of the board of education last night a great deal of routine business was transacted, but the chief discussion of the evening was over the question whether students desiring the question whether students desiring to take special courses should be admitted to the high school. After considerable discussion it was decided that the rule should remain in force which provides that no special students be admitted except it is shown that such students are physically incapacitated from taking the full course.

The resignation of John Hafen, teacher of drawing, was accepted and the teachers' committee was instructed to correspond with J. B. Fairbanks at Provo, who has applied for the posi-

Provo, who has applied for the position.

The financial committee reported that it had paid the note of the heard for $5,000 which fell due on Nov. 6; that $12,000 had been received as a further installment of 1898 taxes and that $875 was due on the semi-annual bond interest account. The last named sum was ordered paid and the report was accepted.

Missing.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—Nothing new developed today in connection with the Baidwin hotel fire. The ruins are being searched as rapidity as their dangerous condition will permit. No bodies have been recovered since yesterday, but the stench arising from the debris is almost conclusive proof that at least one more body will be uncarthed shortly. The revised list of dead and missing is as follows:

Dead: Jonathan L. White, Lewis Meyers, Tate Pryor, J. M. Leithead.

M'KINLEY'S MESSAGE.

Not Yet Finished, But Will Be of Usual Length. Washington, Nov. 25,-The president is

Washington, Nov. 25.—The president is devoting all his spare time to the preparation of his message to congress. Minor matters will be considered only briefly, and by far the larger share of the message will be devoted to the great questions which have been mised by the war. Sections of the message have been gone over by the president with the members of the cabinet to whose departments they particularly relate, and the indications now are that the message will not exceed in length any sent to congress during the last several years.

The bids for printing the delinquent tax list were opened. The Standard put in five bids ranging from 12 cents per description to 25 cents. The first was for the semi alone and the latter for the daily and semi-weekly. The other bids for ten insertions in semi and one in daily, 16 cents; ten in daily, 17 cents; Utah Home, 10 cents; Weekly Press, 4 cents; Weekly Press, 4 cents, The matter was taken under advisement for a few hours and on motion of Mr. Seaman was ordered awarded to the Weekly Press on the filing of a proper bond With the bid of the Press was submitted a statement from its circulator, Mr. Myers, to the effect that the Press had a circulation of about 1,000 and had ample facilities for the work. With the bids of the Standard was a letter calling attention to the circulation considered" phrase in the statute governing the case.

The board also transacted a great deal of business pertaining to the correction of erroneous assessments.

The specifications of Surveyor Bostaph for improving the county road at Black Point, Ogden canyon, were affirmed. The surveyor's report on proposed road through Farr West to the sugar factory was also approved.
